Artius Global Closes Funding from Allectus Capital to Expand Globally

SINGAPORE, 2:00 PM SGT, WEDNESDAY, 28 SEPTEMBER 2022. Artius Global today announced an investment in its pre-Series A round from Allectus Capital, the technology investment arm of ICM Limited, an innovative global asset management group and corporate finance adviser.

This funding round will primarily accelerate Artius Global's go-to-market activities, as well as provide capital to allow product penetration into the markets of Singapore, Hong Kong, United Kingdom, and the United States.

Jacqueline Pang, Managing Director and Co-Founder of Artius Global, says, "We are excited to have this strategic growth capital investment from Allectus Capital. It is a vote of confidence by an industry insider that affirms our value-adding approach of bringing Regtech solutions specifically built for practitioners by practitioners that genuinely solve their compliance and regulatory pain-points."

Andrew Hartley, CEO of Third500 Pte Ltd will be joining Artius Global's Board of Directors as part of the funding round. He says, "We are very impressed with what the team at Artius Global has built. With the closing of the round, the company can continue to build on its foundational pillars of a team of deep experts, product-market fit, and mission-oriented focus to bring a much needed solution to transform the financial industry globally in terms of regulatory reporting."

On its expansion globally, Caleb Woo, Co-founder and Head of Client Success, adds, "This Allectus investment injects valuable working capital and places the company on a solid financial footing. Our focus remains on winning, serving and supporting clients."
